

The House Of Thom
2020

Nosipho

Artist | Composer | Actor | Influencer

NOSIPHO
ThembaLami

About Nosipho

Hailing from Ladysmith in Kwa-Zulu Natal, Nosipho Silinda was born on the 25 of August in the year 2000. Her shot to stardom was in the season 14 of South African idols which saw her holding the sixth position as a finalist. This rising star sang before she could speak and is all about the creative industry.

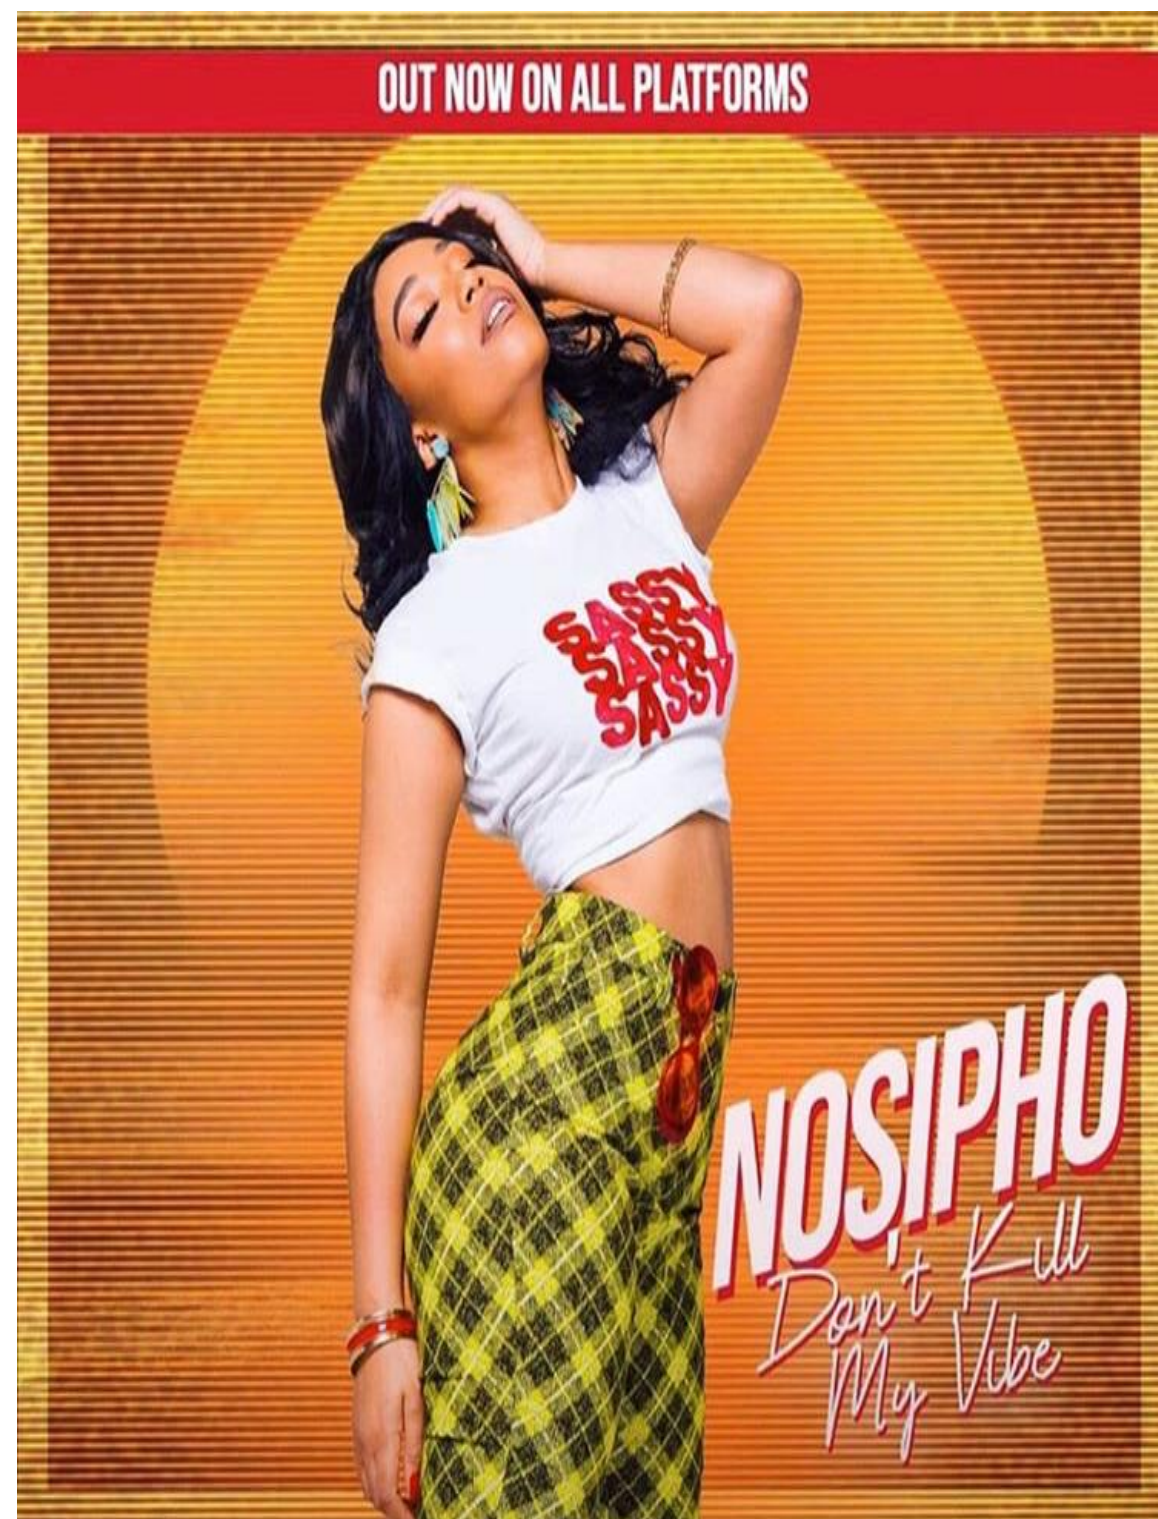

In 2019 Nosipho signed with an international reputable Gallo record company, her single was released in September 2019. She has so much more to offer, she's fresh, young, vibrant, disciplined intelligent young woman.

Apart from being an artist Nosipho is fascinated about different languages and has an interest in different cultures this come across in her music where she fuse Portuguese in her 2nd single titled Don't Kill My Vibe.

Her dream is to one day own a creative arts school where she can act as a channel for a talented rural child who needs assistance in exposing their talent to the world. Being a creative from a small town I understand the challenges that a rural child faces, says Nosipho.

Available for

Music Performance
Influencer
Marketing
Appearances
Social Media Content
& Collaborations

Nosipho release two singles under Gallo records titled Thembalami and Don't Kill My Vibe, both these songs picked at a no.1 spot on different Radio charts.

In 2019 She was requested to write a song for Idols SA S15 Top3 titled 'Kungumusa" which was performed by one of the top3 contestant . On the day of release the song debuted at number 1 across different platforms.

She is now an independent artist and songwriter; she will be releasing her first single as an indie in November 2020 titled 'Wena Wedwa'

Social Statistics

201k

Instagram followers
@therealnocy_jay

50.6k 6400

Twitter followers
@therealnocy_jay

YouTube subscribers
Nosipho

241k

Facebook subscribers
Nosipho Silinda

71.1k

Tik Tok subscribers
Thereanocy_jay

The House of Thom

highlights...

- ✓ Performed her single Thembalami on idols SÁ S16 during the top ten reveal.
- ✓ Performance at the 2019 Gagasifm Beach fest
- ✓ Thembalami and Don't Kill My Vibe was at no.1 on Gagasifm POP charts

Let's Work Together

bookings@thehouseofthom.co.za || Miss T +27 60 8278 460

